

New work, new you

We're looking for a Europe Senior Cyber Security Manager

(ALL GENDERS)

Location in Hamburg

We all enjoy meeting people who are full of new ideas and always looking to improve themselves. And that's also true at Barclays – because we're not your typical bank. Just like you, we're full of energy and love forging new paths.

You can have a real impact at Barclays and help shape the company's future. Not only do you have the opportunity to develop your own skills, but you can also help your team progress and drive the company forward. Set your career free: we offer flexible working arrangements, the opportunity to change position and even assume leadership roles — no avenue is off limits. So, are you ready to take the next step? Start your new and exciting journey at Barclays.

What will you be doing

- Lead the provision of Information and Cyber Security SME advice and guidance to key stakeholders across Barclays Europe including multiple senior Managing Directors and Directors
- Provide coaching and cross-training to Information and Cyber Security colleagues in order to increase the skills maturity of the function as a whole
- Lead the reporting of the status of our risk exposure and control maturity against the relevant Policies and Standards
- Lead investigations, incidents and exceptions to address Information and Cyber Security matters.
- Lead the design and implementation of an information and cyber security controls and change initiatives across the Barclays Europe entity
- Creating an environment and culture that promotes excellence and a continuous improvement approach
- Continuously develop information and cyber security SME capability in line with needs and expectations.
- Use risk management principles to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information are safeguarded in accordance with the bank's operating model and risk appetite.
- Manage security controls exceptions and ensure incidents are tracked and managed to closure

What we're looking for

- Significant experience in working within the information and cyber security field, including systems audit, internal controls and/or security consulting
- Significant experience at implementing or managing risk management processes and tools
- Actively seeks ways to understand, mitigate or reduce risks, drawing on technical experience, risk assessment, and management reports
- Experience in leading and managing multiple stakeholders within a complex matrix environment
- Ability to translate complex technical issues in to a business context
- Proactive approach, committed, team-focused & strong work ethic
- Ability to multi-task and produce high quality work
- Fluent in English and German language

Skills that will help you in the role

- Experience in relevant information risk and control frameworks including NIST, ISO27001
- Information security accreditation such as CISSP, CISA
- Understanding of relevant regulatory environment within European Union
- Experience working in information security risk within Financial Services

What Barclays is all about

People are at the heart of everything we do at Barclays — both our customers and our employees. Giving people the opportunity to realise their full potential is incredibly important to us. Each and every one of our employees helps shape and enrich our unique corporate culture. A creative and diverse team is precisely what makes our mission possible, which is to reinvent payments and finance and give people the freedom to live how they want. More than 1.5 million customers are already benefiting from our renowned credit cards, instalment loans and even our brand-new financing offer in partnership with Amazon. It's no surprise then that we're one of Germany's leading online banks with more than 700 colleagues in Hamburg.

What you can expect at Barclays:

- A competitive base salary
- A flexible budget to use at your discretion (including an HVV ProfiTicket for public transport, payments to employee savings schemes and other solutions)
- Significant employer contributions into a company pension scheme
- Company sports and fitness activities at special rates
- Bonuses on special occasions
- Up to 8 free tickets per season for the Barclays Arena
- 30 days leave (for a 5-day week)
- 2 work days available for community involvement, charity work or social outreach

Apply now

We're looking for colleagues who are bursting with new ideas and are also full of energy to put them into practice. If you're interested in joining our dynamic team and helping Barclays develop, we would love to meet you. Please send your application to karriereaussichten@barclays.de, complete with all required documentation (CV, certificates & references). Please also indicate your expected salary, earliest possible start date and include the following reference number: 036/2022.